CENTRAL BANK COMMITS $10,000 TO RIVERBEND TEACHERS

Central Bank Fulton recently introduced an initiative in support of the entire faculty of the Riverbend School District. To assist educators of the District, Central Bank is making a $10,000.00 pledge to be used for continuing education opportunities for teachers.

“Central Bank understands that a strong school district is the foundation of attracting families to our community, which in turn can lead to business and economic development.” stated Karrie Kenney, Central Bank’s Market Manager. She added, “Ensuring our teachers have opportunities for required continuing education is important to Central Bank, and we are proud to provide this funding in support of the Riverbend School District.”
